SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 14) You may access on-line "computer," or Internet services, except that you shall not access any on-line computer or Internet services, sites, or media that include or feature material that depicts "sexually explicit conduct" involving adults or "minor[s]," "child pornography," or "visual or auditory depictions "of "minor[s]" engaged in "sexually explicit conduct," all as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256.
- 15) You shall not use any software program or device designed to hide, alter or delete records/logs of your computer usage, Internet activities, or the files stored on the assigned computer. This includes the use of encryption, steganography (the art and science of hiding a message in a medium, such as a digital picture or audio file, so as to defy detection), and cache/cookie removal software.
- 16) You shall only use your true name and identifiers (such as date of birth, social security number, driver's license number) for purposes of establishing credit, screen names, utility services, including any services related to computer or electronic equipment or contracts, and registration related to computer-related activities.
- 17) You shall allow the probation officer, or designee, to conduct random inspections, including retrieval and copying of data from any computer, or any personal computing device that you possess or have access to, including any internal or external peripherals. This may require temporary removal of the equipment for a more thorough inspection. You shall not possess or use any public or private data encryption technique or program. You shall purchase and use such hardware and software systems that monitor your computer usage, if directed by the supervising officer.
- 18) You shall maintain a complete and current inventory of your computer equipment and provide it to the supervising officer. You shall provide a monthly record of computer usage and bills pertaining to computer access to the supervising officer.
- 19) You shall provide a complete record of all passwords and user identifications (both past and present) to the supervising officer and shall not make any changes without the prior approval of the supervising officer.
- 20) You shall submit your person, residence, office, or vehicle to a search, conducted by a U.S. probation officer, at a sensible time and manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to search may be grounds for revocation. You shall warn persons with whom you share a residence that the premises may be subject to search.
- 21) You may not be in the presence of minors, except as stated herein, nor frequent places where minors are likely to congregate, including but not limited to schools and playgrounds. Defendant may have "line of sight" supervised contact with his son and newborn child as long as the supervisor is approved by U.S. Probation.
- 22) You shall complete a sex offender evaluation, which may include psychological and polygraph testing. You shall pay according to your ability and allow the reciprocal release of information between the treatment provider and supervising officer.
- 23) You shall actively participate and successfully complete an approved state-certified sex offender treatment program. You shall follow all lifestyle restrictions and treatment requirements of the program. You shall participate in special testing in the form of polygraphs, in order to measure compliance with the treatment program requirements. You shall allow reciprocal release of information between the supervising officer and the treatment provider. You shall pay for treatment and testing according to your ability.
- 24) You shall be prohibited from possessing or manufacturing any material, including videos, magazines, photographs, computer-generated depictions, or any other forms that depict sexually explicit conduct involving children or adults, as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2). Neither shall you enter nor frequent any establishment involved in the sex industry, including but not limited to adult bookstores, massage parlors, and strip clubs. You shall not utilize any sex-related adult telephone numbers. The supervising officer is authorized to monitor compliance in this area by obtaining relative records including but not limited to telephone, Internet, and credit cards.
- 25) You shall live at an approved residence, and shall not change your living situation without advance approval of the supervising officer.
- 26) You shall register as a sex offender, according to the laws of the state in which you reside, are employed, or are attending school.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 27) You shall not reside or loiter within 1000 feet of places where children congregate, which includes playgrounds, primary and secondary schools, city parks, daycare centers, and arcades.
- 28) You shall not be employed in any occupation, business, or profession or participate in any volunteer activity where you have access to children under the age of 18, unless authorized by the supervising officer.
- 29) You shall not possess any type of camera or video recording device without the prior permission of the supervising officer.
- 30) You shall contribute 10% of your income to any balance owed for location monitoring services, as directed by the supervising probation officer. The supervising probation officer may petition the Court on your behalf to modify this requirement if it presents an undue financial hardship.
